CANTONMENT—REGULATIONS

S.R.O. 29.—The following Bye-laws for the control and proper regulation of flour and oil mills in the Cantonment of Dagshai, made by the Cantonment Board, Dagshai, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (17) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

1. In these bye-laws 'flour mill' means any mill manufacturing flour and 'oil mill' means any mill crushing oil seeds or any other vegetable seeds producing oil, or teasing cotton or husking rice or kapas, run by electricity or oil.

2. No person shall establish or maintain a flour or oil mill except under a licence issued by the Board in the form annexed to these bye-laws.

3. The building or premises in which a flour or oil mill is proposed to be installed shall be

- (i) at a reasonable distance from any place which gives out offensive smell such as latrines and cesspits,
- (ii) a solid structure able to withstand the vibration of the engine, with adequate space for fixing a dynamo or engine in a railed enclosure,
- (iii) paved with concrete or cement and having 5 feet high cemented wall with a ceiling roof, properly ventilated and lighted.

4. A flour mill shall be used only for grinding food grains which are properly cleansed.

5. No engine or dynamo of more than 15 horse power shall be installed for a flour mill or an oil mill, the maximum horse power of the engine or dynamo required for every flour mill or oil mill being determined in each case by the Cantonment Board and specified in the licence referred to in bye-law 2. Such machinery shall be fixed on a concrete foundation away from the walls of the building in such manner that the vibrations of the machine do not affect the building.

6. In case of machines run by oil, there shall be a chimney of adequate height so fixed as to eliminate smoke nuisance to neighbours.

7. A flour mill or an oil mill shall be worked only between the hours of 8 A.M. and 7 P.M. and shall be open for inspection at any time during such period by any officer or servant of the Board authorised to carry out such inspection under the Cantonments Act, 1924, or by any other officer or servant of the Board specially authorised in this behalf.

8. The premises, apparatus and the containers used shall be kept scrupulously clean and the personnel working therein shall be inoculated and certified as being free from any contagious disease, by the authorised medical authority.

9. An application for a licence referred to in bye-law 2 shall be made in writing to the Executive Officer in the form annexed to these bye-laws.

10. A breach of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first day during which such contravention continues.

11. If the holder of a licence commits a breach of any of these bye-laws, then without any prejudice to the provisions of bye-law 10, his licence shall be liable to be cancelled by the Executive Officer and shall not be renewed until such time as he has carried out the orders of the Executive Officer, to his satisfaction.
